

Referral Benefits

Thank you for choosing Creating At Will® to assist you in your life and career changes. We all get stuck from time-to-time and it is the courageous few who reach out for support, rather than waste energy, time, money, and what could be more satisfying life moments. For sharing with others in your life how coaching is or has benefited you, you are assisting them to also find keys to unlock the door to their success dreams.

To acknowledge you for sharing this coaching opportunity with others we offer referral benefits. Anyone who signs up for our coaching or beliefs programs based on your referral makes you eligible for a $30 Amazon gift certificate, PLUS 1 free coaching or beliefs session for you or the person you referred!

It is never a practice by clients or Laurie to encourage individuals to sign up for anything other than what they are ready for. Whatever program choice you made is perfect. Also, if someone has referred you to this program, be assured we have contacted them about receiving their gifts.

These referral gifts are a way to honor you for sharing what works, reinforcing it for yourself, and assisting others – it's also a great way you can add to your coaching experience.
